

CHAPTER XLVIII.

An Act to loan to the North Carolina Military Academy at Raleigh, for the use of the Cadets thereof, the necessary military arms and equipments.

I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That his Excellency the Governor of the State, be, and he is hereby authorised and requested to procure, without delay, if he can do so, and loan to the Preceptors of the above named Academy, a sufficient number of Cadets' muskets and the other suitable military equipments necessary for the use of the Cadets thereof, provided he can procure the said muskets and other equipments in exchange for a part of the State's next quota of public arms from the United States; he taking a bond and security from the said Preceptors, of sufficient sum to cover the value of the said arms and equipments so lent to them, conditioned that the said arms and equipments shall be taken care of and kept in good order, and be delivered again to the Governor, at the Arsenal in Raleigh, in good condition, whenever the said school goes down and ceases to exist, or when the same shall be called for by the order of the General Assembly; which bond shall be put in suit by the Governor, whenever a breach of its conditions or either of them shall happen.

Authorises
the Governor to procure arms.

II. Be it further enacted That this act shall be in force from and after the ratification thereof.

[Ratified this 6th day of January, 1845.]

CHAPTER XLIX.

An Act concerning Inspectors of Flour.

I. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the